I talked with Kris Perry today and let her know that I was available to help you in whatever way you need to take the load off across the next few weeks/months as you look for a replacement for John. If you want me involved in any calls or strategy sessions with your team, I'll make myself available. If you want me to pick up a project or two off your plate, whether it involves the legislature or an agency or community, I'll help out wherever you need. Just give me direction and your instructions and I'll do it.

MESSAGE:

Madam Governor,

If you read the two attached messages that I sent to Sen. Huggins, I hope that you will begin to understand my personal frustration with the "Status Quo" that has been present in the political arena for as long as I can remember. No matter what we (the "sadly, mistakenly, uninformed public") say or do, the persons that we "hire" to represent us at all levels of Government seem to always find a way to rationalize/justify not doing that which "We, the People" have asked/directed them to do. Just once, I would like to see an elected official stand in front of everyone and say "I've been in touch with my constituents and the majority have informed me that they want me to take whatever action necessary to assure this particular result is achieved---- since I work for them (while I may or may not wholly agree with this position), I am taking the following action/s to work toward achieving that goal". Regardless of the circumstances; over the years, I have called, talked f! ace to face with, written letters, written e-mails, etc. to innumerable representatives at various levels of government (some that I helped vote into office and others that I vehemently opposed), in an attempt to keep them in touch with their constituents and their (at least my own) positions on various subjects. I have voted in every election for at least the last 25 years, with one exception--in 2005 I was deployed in support of Operations Enduring Freedom and Iraqi Freedom, and unfortunately, did not take advantage of the absentee ballot provisions. I really don't feel that it would have been productive anyway. Even though my "declared party affiliation" is "undeclared", I have always leaned to the Conservative Republican side of the house. However, I have finally gotten tired of "beating my head against the establishment's brick wall" to no avail. Maybe I'm just a "slow study", but the message has finally gotten through----it doesn't matter what I say or do, "they" !

will do as "they" please. Therefore, all I can say is--"I g! ive up, they win, I quit". They, my "elected/appointed government officials", (and yes, they're still mine, even though I will no longer vote for or against them) will not have to worry about ignoring me any longer nor trying to "win" my support--I will just be a silent observer while I grudgingly pay the taxes and fees that I absolutely cannot avoid so they can continue their "reign". Of course, this is exactly what "they" have wanted all along, isn't it? Keep my mouth shut and give them as much money as they want, whenever they want it. Like I said----they win, I quit.

Last week, you caught me by surprise by exercising your "red pen" when you signed the State Budget for FY08. At last, positive action from someone that actually counts in this "politically correct" world that we live in today. All I can say is "you go, girl"! However, one occurrence will not sway me nor bring me "back into the fold"----just do the job, in the office that I helped to vote you into, to the best of your ability and I'll be a "happy camper". Good Luck and May God Bless.

It's OK if nobody but your "staff readers" ever see this----at least I feel better getting this off my chest and in the open . Thanks for your time.

Sincerely,

William B. Beckstine

Subject: Re: Sen. Huggins' End-of-Session Newsletter

Well Charlie, this will probably be my last note--I'm finally giving up--not a single legislator seems willing to listen to their constituents; not only at the local level, but the state and national levels as well. Even when the citizens vote to respond in a particular situation in a particular way, the elected officials just do what they want anyway. I'm not talking about just the last few years, but going all the way back to the 1970s as well. Can you say "move the Capital, don't buy an airplane, keep your hands off a theatre, or what do you mean you're appointing your daughter to the Senate"? I've been beating my head against a brick wall, to no avail. Now, with the latest "scandal" (or should I just say the latest situation in which someone got caught with their hand in the cookie jar) unfolding, its become very obvious that absolutely nothing has changed or even gotten better. This specific situation that Mr Anderson, Mr kott, and others are currently involved, !

is a classic example of why we need to move the capital out of Juneau to a place where John Q. Public has easy access to the legislature to keep an eye on things. Of course, that's probably just another example of wishful thinking--nothing ever really seems to change in politics. At least you won't have to worry about getting anymore questions from me about why you're letting everybody waste our money at the state level, nor having me vote for anything. I sure start seeing red when I see all the money that you people with your fingers on the purse strings keep "granting" to PRIVATE enterprises--if it isn't illegal, it should be. I sure would like to find a way to put some of these people behind bars when they blatantly ignore the people that are trusting them to "do the right thing". I just can't believe that a reasonable person hasn't seen the necessity or urgency of developing a long range fiscal plan for the State, nor can I believe that the group of people we sent t!

o Juneau can't set aside their differences to take care of bu! siness--that leads me to believe that either they're not as astute as they would have us believe, or that they've got their hand in the cookie jar also. I've been too frustrated for too long. There are just too many special interest organizations with deep pockets to fight. So with that in mind, bye guy.

Hi Charlie,

Well, I got your newsletter the other day . I'm getting very concerned with the apparent ease that special interest groups can get money from the State Legislature. One of the worst offenders, to my way of thinking, are the various school districts. Don't get me wrong--I feel that our children deserve the best education we can give them, I just think that we're wasting a whole lot of money doing it. Why are the school districts applying to the State for grants for normal operations and maintenance budget items? Do they have a mind set that they can spend their budget for anything they want and then hold out their hand and the State will fill it? Sure sounds like it to me! The list that you touted in your newsletter totals more than $4 Million in expenditures for NORMAL operations and maintenance of facilities. Well, I also have to admit that the Su Valley High School roof project accounts for the vast majority, $3.8 Million, of these funds. However, I'm not con!

vinced that there was a "real" unavoidable emergency situation there either--sounds like it was a case of simple neglect on the part of the school district that let the roof get in such bad shape in the first place. I'm getting real tired of seeing the State giving away my money, paying for everyone's lack of budgetary constraint and failing to prioritize their expenditures. If the people in charge of the districts can't properly manage their budgets, I think that its about time we found someone who can!

Then you gave away $200,000 of my money to the Matanuska Valley Sportsmen, Inc. so they could improve the ventilation in their building. Are you serious?? You gave away my money to a bunch of guys so they can sit around shooting guns in doors in the winter? Does that mean that I can go there and shoot my guns without paying any additional money?

Probably not? As far as I'm concerned, if they can't take care of business and pay for their own pleasure, that's THEIR problem--NOT mine!

You also gave the Eagle River Lions Club $200,000 for access and site improvements. Can't argue too much there--they're good people doing good things for the right reasons.

You gave away $1 Million to fund the expansion of the Harry J. MacDonald Center. If the Municipality of Anchorage, or the people that utilize the facility, can't provide the funds; then they don't need the expansion.

You gave the Mat-Su Borough $583,000 from the Public Employees Retirement System. Why would you give money away that was designed for public employee retirement? Isn't the fund already short millions of dollars? Where are you going to get the money to replace it? This kind of "creative bookkeeping" winds up costing us double. Kind of makes me think of a man named Kenneth Lye and a company named Enron.

You gave $5.697 Million to the Mat-Su Borough from the Energy Assistance Program. For what?

You stated that you hoped these last two gifts would make a difference in their property taxes. We need to stop these kinds of "gifts" and stop "enabling" our people, so we can get away from the "entitlement" mentality that is so prevalent in our state.

Do you think that behavior by our "lawmakers",such as I stated previously, has anything with our current problem of "voter apathy" as evidenced by the dismal turnout at the polls in the past decade?

The problem with this "little" bit of money is that it is only a "drop in the bucket" when you think of all the other gifts in all the other political districts in the state. And people wonder why I'm getting frustrated with "my" elected representatives?

I guess I've taken enough of your time. Have a good day.

Rep Olson and I visited with Chuck Kopp at the Police Department, toured the Job Center, saw the North road and Agrium, and the gas to liquid facilities.

Kurt asked if I would volunteer with the Kenai Chamber of Commerce (all community volunteers) to serve breakfast to Kenai Classic participants. I said I would. Thursday evening I was asked by several people if I were going to fish, and I said "no." Friday morning, after serving breakfast from 4-6 am there ended up being room on the boats for the volunteers. I did get on a boat until noon. My name was written in as the last chamber volunteer on the last boat. The majority of my time in Kenai was spent reaching out to the Kenai community, not hanging out with the Classic crowd. Kurt will verify. I thought it would be a great networking opportunity.

The majority of my trip was spent in Palmer with my family. Nobody expressed to me concern with traveling to Kenai. Had I known there was concern you know I would have rescheduled for a different weekend. I used personal air miles, used my own vehicle and stayed with my family 3 nights, Kurt for 1 night.

Governor, you know I would never do anything, intentionally or inadvertently, to disappoint or upset you. I know you know I work hard for you 7 days a week and that I take my job very seriously. If you are upset, which I'm sensing from your email, I sincerely apologize from the bottom of my heart.

Governor,

I met with two strong supporters last night from the fisheries sector that expressed concern about Ben Stevens and Stephanie Madsen showing currently on the Pacific Marine Fisheries Commission. They said it appears they could be removed for cause, and recommended that Ben be removed immediately and Madsen be removed when her NPFMC term expires. Their concern with Madsen was that on a Commission that involves all western pacific states, she would be serving the interests of her employer, At Sea Processors, not the State of Alaska.
